

2. What do you want to accomplish on this position?

Hint: You should focus on the accomplishments of the school, and the children you'll teach, not on your own personal accomplishments. Try to present yourself as someone who cares for the children and for the school.

Good employees have some goals, and want to accomplish something in their daily job. Therefore you should never say that you have no plans, goals and vision.

Sample answers

- I want to help each pupil to achieve their full potential, and I hope to be a good role model for the children. That would make me proud as a teacher.
- I want to achieve exceptional results with the pupils and help the school to great reputation and recognition in this district. Trying my best in every lesson and after school activity, I believe we can accomplish this goal.
